HURRAH!
HURRAH!
HURRAH!

Missouri
Has gone Republican.

The latest election news indicates that the Republicans have elected their State ticket by 10,000 majority. Eleven Republican congressmen are claimed by the Republicans. Governor Stone's political methods severely rebuked.

GRAND OLD MISSOURI!

Wow!

Oh my!

And the band played.

Ah there "Observer."

Ah there! Brother Bell.

DEMAGOGUERY is played out.

"OBSERVER" helped to do it.

WHERE, oh where is "Rustler?"

THIS is truly a Republican year.

GRAND old Washington County!

He laughs best, who laughs last.

WHAT's the matter with Judge Fox?

WHAT about the road overseers,

"Observer?"

WASHINGTON COUNTY will now

begin to boom.

The straight ticket went through from top to bottom.

JEFFERSON COUNTY has gone

Republican by a big majority.

WHAT's the matter with Washington county? She's all right.

We always said "Observer's"

articles would help us. Thanks.

THE Dems didn't "holler" any after eleven o'clock Tuesday night.

HA, ha, ha! We point at

"Observer" and laugh with ghoulish glee.

WASHINGTON COUNTY has gone

Republican. The millennium has "arrived."

"OBSERVER" got the spanking

we predicted for him several weeks ago.

Let "Observer" observe the returns and see the good he has done his party.

THE band wagon was pretty full when it came in, but there was room for more.

CRAWFORD COUNTY has elected the entire Republican ticket by largely increased majorities.

TARIFF reduction on lead and tiff

had much to do with Raney's majority in this county.

Now that the war is over, we will try to give our readers less politics and more news.

THE "possum" was only biding

his time and waiting for a chance to bite "Observer."

OUR rooster is too young to be trotted out. However, we make it up in "hollerin'."

THE Republican majorities in this county range all the way from over 500 down to 10.

THE old soldiers have not forgotten "Observer's" insult. They are royally revenged to day.

It was our object to keep "Observer" mad enough to have him continue writing all through the campaign.

Those peanut politicians can now retire. Personal villification in elections sometimes acts like a boomerang.

WE knocked the stuffing out of that old election contest in one round. Let it be retired to its well earned repose.

THE Republican party returns

thanks to "Observer," "Rustler"

and the Independent, for aid rendered them during the recent

REPUBLICANS will celebrate Thanksgiving in becoming style this year.

DIED.—At Belgrade, Mo., on Tuesday, November 6th, 1894, "Observer," from an overdose of election returns. "Requiescat in pace."

THE news gets better all the time. Reports from all over the country show a Democratic landslide. Free trade has received a black eye.

THE only Democrats elected are Andrew Casey, Probate Judge, and Frank Teasdale, Coroner. There was no Republican nomination for those offices.

WE threw a bomb in the Democratic camp last week, and for a while there was some pretty lively scampering around to get out of the way of the explosion.

It takes some time to get us riled up, but when we get let out some pretty hot shot. Our article on the old election contest, took the wind out of our contemporary's sails.

THE "ox-cart special" arrived on time last Tuesday, Nov. 6th, despite the "broken rails," "cattle guards" and "danger signals." Very true are the words of "Rustler," "Merit only, wins."

THE Independent's campaign correspondent from the south end of the county seems to be as unsuccessful in his political efforts as he was in the De Soto foot race last year. But wasn't he duped.

SPEAKING seriously, the result in this county shows that the people are no longer satisfied with Democratic rule and are willing to give the Republicans a show. A change of administration will be beneficial to the county.

THE Czar of Russia died last Wednesday. He is succeeded by his eldest son, who will wield the scepter under the title of Nicholas II. Whether the new emperor will hold the same despotic sway as his ancestors, remains to be seen but it is to be hoped that he will be more liberal in his views.

WE do not claim all the credit of having brought about such a change in the political complexion of this county, but we have added our mite to the rest. The result of our labor shows that the Republican party in this county cannot afford to be without a party organ to uphold its interests. It should have had one long ago, and this change would have probably come sooner. Let every Republican in the county now come forward and show his interest in the welfare of his party by subscribing for it. We have already a subscription list exceeding our fondest expectations, but we want to make the circulation of this paper the largest of any paper ever established here. It should be in every home, and our patrons can always feel assured that its columns will always be kept clean and pure.

WE do not deem it good policy for a newspaper to allow an indiscriminate use of its columns during a political campaign, and acting under this belief we found it necessary to suppress a number of communications to this paper. Some of these articles made personal attacks upon individual candidates on the opposition ticket, and had we published them it would only have stirred up strife and animosities through which the party would have suffered. An editor should have the capacity to judge what is best for his party, and rather than publish matter detrimental to the party he can afford to lose the contributor. Another thing. An editor should confine his sphere of action to the editorial sanctum; it is his business to manage the journalistic end of a political campaign, and that is all that is expected of him. When he goes beyond that he hurts his party more than he helps it, and besides, it is likely to react against the standing of his paper.

REPUBLICAN TIDAL WAVE.

Morton Elected Governor of New York by a Plurality of 150,000.

Congress wrested from the Democracy.

NEW YORK.—The Republicans have carried the State by a plurality ranging from 130,000 to 150,000. This represents the probable plurality of Levi P. Morton over David B. Hill.

MISSOURI.—Democrats have carried the State ticket by largely reduced pluralities. The vote was light. Populists have made slight gains. Republicans claim four congressmen; may possibly get more.

ILLINOIS.—Nothing to speak of escaped the Republicans in Chicago and Illinois. They captured about everything from county officers to congressmen. Republican nominee for State treasurer will probably have 40,000 plurality. Legislature safely Republican, thus insuring the re-election of Senator Callum.

INDIANA.—Republicans carry the State by a large plurality. Both branches of legislature safe for the party. Several congressmen gained.

COLORADO.—Populism overthrown and the State redeemed. Indications are that Republicans have elected their candidate for governor by 20,000 majority over Waite, Populist. Senator Wolcott likely to lose his job.

LOUISIANA.—Republicans fail to elect congressmen. Solid Democratic delegation.

NEW JERSEY.—Control of the legislature and entire congressional delegation captured by the Republicans. Will elect a Republican successor to Senator McPherson.

MINNESOTA.—Nelson, Republican re-elected governor. Legislature possibly Republican.

CALIFORNIA.—State conceded to Republicans. Final result still somewhat in doubt, however.

TEXAS.—Cullbertson, Democrat, elected governor, but by a greatly decreased majority.

MICHIGAN.—Republicans carry the State and elect a solid congressional delegation. Legislature safely Republican on a joint ballot.

ARKANSAS.—The Democratic party holds uninterrupted sway.

KANSAS.—Populists fired out. Republicans elect their candidate for governor, and the legislature is supposed to be Republican on a joint ballot. It is probable that Jerry Simpson has been defeated in the 7th congressional district.

OHIO.—McKinley's State gives Republicans 130,000 majority, the largest ever known in that State. Seventeen congressmen elected out of twenty-one.

NEBRASKA.—Fusion candidate probably elected over Republican candidate in the race for governor.

IOWA.—Republicans claim the State by 75,000. Ten Republican congressmen elected.

WEST VIRGINIA.—Wilson, the father of the new tariff law defeated in the 2d congressional district.

MASSACHUSETTS.—State carried by Republican nominee for governor by 60,000 majority. We get eleven congressmen in the State.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Sweeping Republican victory in the State. Our plurality about 250,000.

ALABAMA.—Democrats said to have lost four congressmen; two are claimed by the Republicans and two by the Populists.

WYOMING.—Entire Republican ticket elected. Two Republican Senators assured.

WISCONSIN.—A plurality of 40,000 conceded to the Republican ticket.

KENTUCKY.—Our party elects four out of eleven congressmen in this State. A Republican will succeed W. C. P. Breckenridge.

IDAHO.—State probably gone Republican, though the Populists dispute this claim.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Republicans gain two congressmen.

CONNECTICUT.—Republicans elect their candidate for governor; also three congressmen, and both branches of the legislature.

NORTH DAKOTA.—Republican governor elected and the State redeemed.

MARYLAND.—Republicans gain three congressmen.

The Victory of Congress.

FROM THE GLOBE DEMOCRAT.
The Republican victory in the Congressional elections was brilliant and conspicuous. There was an adverse Democratic plurality of ninety-two to overcome, a lead which has seldom been exceeded by any party in any Congress, but it was easily blotted out and a Republican majority of ample proportions put in its place. It is a victory over which the Republicans can well afford to exult. They had heavy odds to contend against at the outset because of the tremendous majorities rolled up by the Democracy in 1890 and 1892, and on account of the prestige thus gained by that party, but they surmounted all the obstacles enthusiastically and grandly, and secured a majority sufficient to give this canvass a prominent place among the half a dozen great revolutions which have occurred in the elections of Congresses.

This election has given the "coup de grace" to the idea that the South must be sold for the Democracy at all times and under all circumstances. The Republican gains in that quarter yesterday indicate that some of its States will be fairly debatable hereafter like those of the North, and that no one party has a perpetual lien upon the suffrage of that section. In the present House the Democrats have 121 of the 127 members chosen in the sixteen ex-slave States, but in the House elected yesterday their number was largely reduced. In the South as well as in the rest of the country the Republicans gained ground. This ground they undoubtedly will retain. The solid South is a thing of the past. It is obsolete, knocked out, abolished. It has gone to join the relic of barbarism which was responsible for it. Henceforth there will be two parties in the South instead of one, and the ability and fitness of the candidates and the character of the policy for which they stand will determine which party shall be dominant, as is the case in the North.

A halt has been called on tariff tinkering. This will be the first and most important result of the Congressional election. The House chosen yesterday will not only be a barrier against all assaults on the tariff, whether inspired by the White House or by the Senate, but the popular temper which that House reveals will influence legislation long before the new Congress can go into existence. There will be no further raids on the country's industries by the present Congress. This great Republican rising will be a mandate from the people to the Democracy to take its hand off the tariff immediately. The popgun bills which passed the House a few months ago will never go through the Senate, and the others which the Democrats of the House threatened to pass will never see the light of day. The war against the nation's productive interests and activities is ended. Trade will have a chance to adjust itself to the new conditions, the financial clouds will be dispersed, and the shackles with which the Democracy bound commerce will be broken. The election is a glorious victory for the country. It means improved business, renewed progress and abundant prosperity.

The election is over and, we trust that all personal animosities that have been aroused during the campaign will be forgotten and let all work for the good of the community. Whatever has been said in these columns while the fight was on, was purely in a political sense. We have been as conservative as our opponents have permitted us to be. While we have had some pretty hard things said about us, we took them in the spirit in which we think they were intended. Let bygones be bygones.
